NEXACORP GLOBAL EMPLOYEE HR POLICY & BENEFITS MANUAL (2025)

Section 1: Employment Terms, Work Hours, and Hybrid Policy

1.1 Probationary Period All newly hired full-time regular employees undergo a mandatory probationary period of six (6) months from their start date. Performance is formally evaluated at the 90-day and 180-day milestones. Upon successful completion and manager sign-off, confirmation is issued in writing. NexaCorp reserves the right to extend probation by up to an additional three (3) months if performance standards are not fully satisfied.

1.2 Working Hours and Core Collaboration Hours Standard working hours are 40 hours per week, Monday through Friday. Core collaboration hours during which all employees must be reachable and available for meetings are 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM in their respective local regional time zone.

1.3 Hybrid Workplace Guidelines Eligible employees in technical, product, and administrative tracks may participate in the Hybrid Working Program: • Minimum Requirement: Employees must work on-site at a designated corporate office at least two (2) specified days per week (typically Tuesdays and Thursdays). • Remote Workspace Allowance: Eligible hybrid employees receive a one-time remote home office setup stipend of $800 to purchase ergonomic furniture, monitors, or accessories.

Section 2: Paid Time Off (PTO), Sick Leave, and Parental Leave

2.1 Paid Annual Vacation Leave Full-time employees accrue 20 working days of Paid Time Off (PTO) per calendar year, accrued proportionally on a monthly basis (1.67 days per month). A maximum of 8 unused PTO days can be rolled over into the succeeding calendar year. Any unused PTO exceeding 8 days as of December 31st will expire without monetary payout.

2.2 Sick and Wellness Leave Employees receive 10 dedicated days of paid sick leave per year, available from day one. Absences exceeding three (3) consecutive business days require submission of a verified doctor's medical certificate to HR Operations.

2.3 Comprehensive Parental Leave NexaCorp provides 16 consecutive weeks of 100% paid primary caregiver parental leave to all employees who have completed at least twelve (12) continuous months of employment. Secondary caregivers receive 6 consecutive weeks of 100% paid leave. Parental leave must be taken within twelve (12) months following birth, adoption, or foster placement.

Section 3: Health Insurance, Wellness Benefits, and Retirement

3.1 Medical, Dental, and Vision Coverage NexaCorp covers 90% of monthly health insurance premium costs for employees and 75% of premium costs for eligible dependents: • Medical Plan: In-network annual deductible is $500 per individual and $1,000 per family. Maximum out-of-pocket limit is $3,500. • Dental Coverage: 100% preventive care covered; 80% basic procedures; annual maximum dental benefit of $2,500 per covered member. • Vision Coverage: Annual comprehensive eye exam covered 100%; $200 biennial hardware allowance for prescription glasses or contact lenses.

3.2 401(k) Retirement Savings Match Employees can enroll in the corporate 401(k) plan immediately upon hire. NexaCorp matches 100% of employee contributions up to the first 4% of eligible annual salary, and 50% on the next 2% contributed (maximum effective company match of 5%). Company matching funds follow a 2-year graded vesting schedule: 50% after Year 1, 100% after Year 2.

Section 4: Professional Development, Travel Reimbursement, and Notice

4.1 Professional Development & Tuition Subsidy To encourage lifelong learning, NexaCorp reimburses up to $2,500 per calendar year per employee for approved external certifications, university courses, and technical conferences. Coursework must be directly aligned with the employee's current or anticipated future career path and requires prior manager approval.

4.2 Business Travel Expense Policy Employees traveling on official company business are entitled to reimbursement under corporate guidelines: • Hotel Accommodation: Domestic ceiling of $220/night; international ceiling of $320/night. • Daily Meal Per Diem: Up to $75 per day for domestic travel; up to $100 per day for international travel. • Flights exceeding 6 continuous hours qualify for Premium Economy. Business Class travel is strictly reserved for transcontinental flights exceeding 10 hours with VP-level authorization.

4.3 Resignation and Notice Period Regular confirmed employees who choose to resign must provide a minimum notice period: • Individual Contributors (IC1 to IC3): 2 weeks written notice. • Senior Engineers, Managers, and Directors: 4 weeks written notice. • Vice Presidents and Executives: 8 weeks written notice.
